Help Emma and Alex tell the story of Noah's Ark by coloring this

LAST TIME WE LEFT THE SANDRINO FAMILY EMMA HAD BEEN VOLUNTEERING AT A LOCAL ORPHANAGE. Emma was very excited about the little girls she had worked with, and when the time came to visit them again she decided to bring her brother Alex along.

Emma ran up to the door of the orphanage, ready for another day helping the little girls. This time Alex came with her to help by hanging out with the boys.

"Alex, I am so excited that we have gotten involved in the work here at the orphanage. We get to share God's love with others!" Emma said, as she slowed her pace and looked into her brother's eyes.

"Me too, Em, me too. Let's go share some more of that love today!" Alex said, giving his sister a big smile. The boys and girls ran up to Emma and Alex as soon as they entered the building.

"Can you please read us another Bible story, Miss Emma?" a little girl asked, with pleading puppy dog eyes.

"Yes, Olivia, I sure can! And today Alex came with me. Let's get the boys and go lay out on a big blanket in the backyard. We can read a Bible story and play. Does that sound like a good idea?" Emma asked the little girl.

"Yes, Miss Emma, yes. Let's please go do that! I love you and am so excited you come and see me all the time!" Olivia said in her sweet little four-year-old voice.

Emma went and got the supplies for their morning while Alex rounded up all of the kids and sent them outside. They spread a huge quilt out on the ground and all sat down, eager for Emma to tell them another Bible story. Today's story was about Noah and how God showed His faithfulness to Him and promised to never flood the earth again.

"Read another one, read another one!!" the kids yelled out. Alex took over and he and Emma spent an entire hour just playing with the kids and reading Bible stories to them.

When Emma and Alex went home that night, exhausted from the day, Alex looked at his sister and said, "I think I could do that everyday and never get tired of it. Helping kids see the love of Jesus is my new favorite thing to do!"

"Me too, Alex, me too!" Emma said, and yawned.

PLEASE STAY TUNED FOR THE REMAINDER OF THE STORY IN THE NEXT EDITION.

"I AM ADOPTED" ART

I bet you would be SHOCKED if you saw your picture in this book beside one of these orphans! But did you know that before we know Jesus, we are not part of God's family? That means we were all "orphans" and needed adopted into God's family! Draw a big picture of YOURSELF in the space below, and write "I AM ADOPTED!" Then, show it to three people and explain to them what it means.

SPECIAL PRAYER ASSIGNMENT

Last month, we met Marius, one of the little orphan boys that missionary Sally Sebo cares for. All of the pictures included in this book are orphans too, and desperately need the love of Jesus. Sally Sebo loves these children very much, but it is a lot of work caring for all of them! She needs YOUR help. Can you please pray for each one of these children? PRAY THAT....

- (1) Each child asks Jesus to forgive them of his or her sins
- (2) God provides all of his or her food, clothing, and other needs.

GET INVOLVED

Alexandra

Ask your friends and family if they know anyone who is trying to adopt a child. See if your church would be able to help this family with the expenses. It can cost thousands of dollars!

Cristi

Start a collection box to raise money for orphans or foster kids. It may be as simple as putting a square wood box at the door of your school or parent's workplace. Just label it "Collection for backpack, pj's, coats etc. for foster kids." Your parents can help you make sure it gets into the right hands!

Don't ever think that just because you are a KID, you can't make a DIFFERENCE! Pick one of these two projects and you may inspire an ADULT to do even more!

DEVELOPER ACTIVITY:

Grab one of your family's photo albums and take some time to look at the pictures in it. God has blessed you with a family who loves God. If you have given your life to Jesus and have asked God to forgive your sins, then you are adopted into God's family as well!

Draw a picture of yourself with your church family and then send it to Joana Stratton at engagekids@feaministries.org.
