

Ministry Opportunities Abound

1. How can social and individual difficulties actually aid in spreading the gospel message?

2. One of the best evangelism tools is the testimony of a transformed life. Can you remember times where people have wondered why you were at peace or so happy? Share how your personal testimony has opened opportunities for you to witness.

3. List some of the major social problems facing people in America today:

---

4. What role, if any, should Christians and the local church have in confronting social wrongs?

Can you provide Biblical basis that supports your conclusion?

5. Hungary is the third largest country in Europe for human trafficking. Sadly, tens of thousands of people are enslaved in the sex trade. What are some of the approaches Ed and Heather Durham are taking to combat this evil? _____

6. List some specific ways that you as an individual and your church as a collective body of believers can fight against the social evils around you. _____

7. What are some potential challenges that can hinder us as Christians from making a spiritual difference in our society and what steps should we take to overcome them?

8. Over the next month, what is one specific step you plan to take in order to more effectively impact the society around you with the truth of the gospel and God's love?

9. After watching Esty's prayer, how can you pray more specifically for Hungary?

How can you pray more specifically for the United States?
