

Freedom from Bondage and Fear

1. What emotion dominates the lives of a large percentage of Asian people?

2. How can you tell when people around you are struggling with fear or bondage?

3. What is your reaction to the way many Asians fear ghosts and the spirits of their ancestors?

4. List some difficulties missionaries might encounter as they endeavor to minister to these people:

5. What is one of the most powerful ways missionaries can witness to those locked behind walls of superstition and bondage?

6. List some major differences between the gods worshiped by the Asian people and the one true God of the Christians:

7. Why do people usually build walls?

8. You no doubt are acquainted with many individuals who have erected emotional or spiritual walls in their lives. Can you list some deliberate ways you can begin to gently break through those walls? _____

9. Though thousands are giving their hearts to Christ in China, they still have great spiritual needs. Missionaries need to focus what key area when working with Chinese today?

10. How has God helped you to disciple a new believer recently?

11. Although many Taiwanese are turning away from their parent's religion and becoming more secular, they still turn to their traditions and festivals trying to fill their spiritual void with pleasure and excitement. How is this similar to the people in your community and what should your church's response be?

