

I Have Set Before You An Open Door!

1. When Jeanne Schwartz and Dorothy Hsu first went to China twenty-three years ago, they never dreamed of all the opportunities God would provide for them to build His church there. List some of the doors He has opened in China. _____

2. While the ministry in Asia started small, it has grown to encompass over a dozen large cities in China and Taiwan and hundreds of secret churches. What does this teach you about God?

- How does the example in Asia encourage you to stay faithful to the tasks God gives you, no matter the current outlook? _____

3. Due to years of oppression under Communism, many people in China suffer with emotional and social problems. Jeanne Schwartz is a trained counselor and has helped many people work through these issues. Why is it important to assist people to deal with their emotional needs when ministering to them? _____

4. It seems like more than ever people are struggling with emotional baggage. Is your church equipped to adequately minister to these needs? _____ If not, what can you do to help change this? _____
5. One of the early ways HIM began working with the Chinese was within neighboring communities. What open doors for ministry has God set before you? _____

- What is the first step you need to take in order to walk through these doors?

6. In China many groups of believers are pastored by people who have less than two weeks of Bible training. How would you feel if it was your responsibility to pastor a secret church?

- How prepared are you to do so? _____

7. How can you more effectively pray for the secret Chinese churches and for the spiritual needs in Taiwan? _____
