

Where Do You Fit In?

1. No one is exempt from the Great Commission. Everyone has a role to fulfill in ensuring the gospel message is spread around the world. Have you intentionally discovered how God wants you to be involved? _____ Where do you fit in right now? _____

2. God often uses the stories of other people to influence our own lives. Think of someone you know whose life has inspired you to give your all for Christ. Write how they have impacted you.

3. Christina shared how she got to the point where she was very comfortable in her life here in the US and not completely willing to return to the mission field. Can you remember a similar time in your life when it wasn't easy to obey God? _____ If so, how did He help you work through that difficulty. _____

4. God answered Christina's prayer when she asked Him to give her a vision for the lost. Describe the vision God has given you for hurting people. _____

Does that vision need renewed? _____ If so, what steps will you take for this to happen? _____

5. "There is incredible joy in being exactly where God has placed you." Christina is experiencing profound joy and peace as she obeys God on the mission field. Describe how God has blessed you as you follow His leading in your life. _____

6. God has given HIM a vision to reach the Asian world for Christ. Where do you fit in? How can you help ensure the gospel reaches people before it is too late? _____

7. Think back over the last few months as you have participated in the Engage Asia series. In what ways have you been most challenged? _____

8. David Black shared a number of different ways that you can be a part of the ministry in Asia. How can you apply his challenge more fully in your life? _____
