

Expanding God's Kingdom in Africa

1. In many parts of Africa it is extremely difficult for people to accept God. What do people believe will happen to them if they choose to reject their ancestor worship and turn to God?

2. Satan has deceived people into thinking they are harmlessly worshipping their dead relatives. But in reality what are people lifting up in their worship? _____
3. As a Christian how would you react to living in a culture filled with witches and witch doctors?

4. How would you minister to people bound in grip of witchcraft?

5. In the story of Ntate Kali what sensation did he experience in the Christian tent services that drew him to Christ? _____
6. Think of people you know whose lives are filled with emotional or spiritual turmoil. How can your salvation story and Ntate Kali's story be used to share the source of peace with them?

7. Why has much of the evangelical work started by the early missionaries to Lesotho lost its spiritual vitality? _____
8. While churches here in America may not struggle with the same issues as many congregations in Africa, can you list some common problems that tend to sap our spiritual vitality?

9. How does the Basotho people's loyalty to the church they were born into affect the work of missionaries? _____
What creative way have HIM missionaries used to draw people to evangelical services?

10. People are hungry for the gospel in Lesotho. They long to be delivered from demons and their fear of ancestors. The opportunities to plant new churches are many! What is the greatest need that sometimes hinders this from happening? _____
11. How can you more effectively pray for the missionary work in Lesotho? _____