

Training Tomorrow's Leaders

1. What is a sign that someone is maturing in their walk with Christ? _____

2. Glenn Gault and the national leaders in Lesotho and South Africa invest a lot of time in mentoring new Christians. Why is it important to focus on leadership training and mentoring of believers? _____

3. What Biblical examples are there of this type of training? _____

4. How does effective discipleship take place? _____

5. What methods does your church employ to intentionally disciple new believers? _____
How are you involved with this discipleship process? _____

6. There is a limit to what one missionary can do. In order to expand the work and multiply effective spreading of the gospel it is imperative for missionaries to train others how make disciples of Christ. What method have missionaries in Africa found to be the best way to train people for ministry? _____
Describe some of the steps in this training. _____

7. In 2004 When HIM missionaries started a Bible school in Lesotho, what was their goal? _____

8. HIM partners with Shepherds Global Classroom to provide high quality, easy-to-use curriculum for Christians to strengthen their faith and knowledge of scripture. In a way similar to that of the students in Africa, these study materials can be used by individuals independently throughout the week, then reviewed in a group setting. Is there anyone in your congregation or any new believers you know that could benefit from these materials? _____

Learn more about this excellent training curriculum at www.shepherdsglobalclassroom.org.