

The Written Word FOR THE WORLD

Louie's Favorite Books

Hey kids! One of the best ways to learn about Jesus is by reading about His life in stories. Let me tell you about three really neat children's books by Gospel Publishing Mission that have traveled around the world.

I love this book! It's one of my favorites. Can you believe 75,000 copies have been given out to kids around the world? Now they all know Jesus can be their friend.

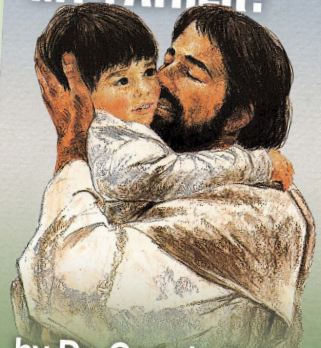

This one has gone to some of the most dangerous countries in the world like Egypt and Iran. Some kids may be reading it right now while sitting by the Nile river where baby Moses floated in a basket.

Talk about an amazing book! Is God Really My Father? is available in 9 different languages and there are about 500,000 copies spread all over the world. This book tells how God created the world and most importantly, how we can be saved.

The Power of Books

In Brazil there are extremely poor areas called favelas full of evil and crime. Even policemen are scared of them! A favela named Borel was the most dangerous. But things began to change when a prisoner from Borel got saved. He returned home with some missionaries and set up a program to win his neighbors to Jesus.

Those missionaries used the kids' love of soccer to reach them by planning their own "Borel Olympics" during the 2016 Rio Olympic Games. They even had trophies! Joe Taylor was excited to be a special part of these games. He and the other missionaries gave out thousands of RIO Fun books published by Gospel Publishing Mission. Each kid wanted to be the first to get one, and the team quickly ran out! God is using books to help even the poorest children of the world come to Jesus.

MEMORY VERSE

So is my word that goes out from my mouth: it will not return to me empty, but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it.

MAKINGS OF A Missionary

Soon after the death and resurrection of Jesus there lived a man named Paul. Paul was educated and religious, but he hated Christians. He believed they were destroying the Jewish religion. His mission was to silence anyone who followed the teachings of Christ. However, God spoke to Paul and told him to stop fighting against the work of the Lord.

Paul was sorry for doing wrong, repented, and began witnessing for Christ. He took three long missionary journeys across the world and helped build the Christian church. But perhaps the most important aspect of Paul's life was the letters he wrote to encourage and teach new Christians. These letters became thirteen books of the New Testament! Though this man had once been God's enemy, he became a powerful missionary, and God used his writings to change the world!

Help Us Share the Gospel
One Book at a Time!

You have learned just how powerful the written word can be. We want to help YOU get involved with spreading the gospel to people around you. We challenge you to give a book like Jesus My Very Best Friend away to someone who does not know Jesus. By doing this, you might introduce that person to the One who can save them from their sins! Let us know how it went by sending an email to engagekids@feaministries.org.
