

Creative Ways to Share the Gospel

1. When Joe Taylor started Gospel Publishing Mission in Papua New Guinea over twenty-five years ago, he never dreamed how GPM's influence would expand worldwide. God honors obedience, and He is only limited by our lack of faith. What in your life or in your church has God asked you to do for His kingdom? _____

Be encouraged! God will bless your faithful obedience to His will!

2. Aside from God blessing GPM, what do you think have been some of the main reasons why this ministry has grown as it has? _____

3. Gay Taylor is an integral part of GPM. However, when Joe first told her of God's calling to Papua New Guinea, she did not want to go. After much prayer she said yes to the call and continues to bless others through her obedience. Can you think of an area in your life where you have found it difficult to trust God and obey His direction? _____

4. Robert Booth wrote a special disaster relief book to be distributed in times of crisis. Why do you think this book will be an effective ministry tool to draw people to Jesus? _____

5. GPM is constantly looking for ways to creatively share the gospel. New products for children and young people are being developed. We also have high interest in using digital technology to share the gospel, especially in restricted areas or among oral societies. What are some creative ways your church can spread the gospel to the spiritually needy? _____

6. What large gatherings of people take place near you where your church could pass out specially-made event books containing the gospel message? _____

7. God has blessed GPM greatly and enabled much to be accomplished. Looking toward the future, we believe He wants to do even greater things through this ministry. To continue expanding our impact, GPM needs dedicated, passionate people to help us grow. While you may not be called to serve as a full-time literature missionary, think of at least one specific way you can assist in the work of GPM. _____
