

God at Work in Latin America

1. José Cruz prayed for years that God would send someone to plant a church in his village of Las Delicias. At last, Eric Kuhns was led to start services there, and before long a church was born. What stands out to you the most from this story? _____

2. What are some reasons that church planting is an effective way of spreading the gospel? _____

3. Jesus said He would build His church, and the gates of hell would not prevail against it. Describe some characteristics of the church. _____

4. How do you agree or disagree with Eric Kuhn's statement, "True disciples will either grow a church or start a church. It is the natural outcome of discipleship." _____

5. Satan is not pleased with the establishment of new congregations. When Eric and Hannah Kuhns moved to Honduras, progress was slow in planting a church. What made the difference, and how does this apply to us today? _____

6. Church planting is not just a fad or popular strategy of the day. Why should we recapture the vision and a sense of urgency to plant churches? _____

7. The need for more churches to be planted exists all across America as well as on our mission fields. What can you do to help start a Bible-believing, truth-seeking assembly of believers in an area of need close to you? _____
