

Showing Christ's Love By Meeting Needs

1. Ministering to people's needs is the calling of the local church. How is your congregation actively being the hands and feet of Jesus in its surrounding neighborhoods, as described in Matthew 25:34-46? _____

2. Why is it important that ministry never be disconnected from the local church? _____

3. People are often more open to God when tragedy strikes. Following Nahum's accident, a neighbor invited him to church where he gave his life to Christ. Who can you think of that is going through a difficult time right now? _____
How can you show the love of Jesus to them? _____

4. Why do you think meeting people's felt needs is an effective tool for sharing the gospel? _____

5. What aspect of the ministries which flow from the local church in Honduras impacts you the most? _____

6. How will what you have seen today change the way you look at the world around you? _____

7. As Eric Kuhns said, ministering to the needs of people around you may look different than it does on the mission field. However, needs do exist in the US just the same as in Honduras or any other poverty-stricken country. What are some creative ways you can share the gospel while meeting needs? _____

