

Where Do We Go from Here?

---

1. How we view other nations often affects our feelings about people outside our culture. What comes to your mind when you think of Latin America? _____

_____

Do your thoughts immediately reflect a Christian perspective or is it influenced by what you see and hear? Why? _____

2. Eric says Christ looks at Latin America and sees men and women who share our blood and need a Savior—people who are seeking for peace in their lives and hungering for love. If we look at other nations through Christ’s eyes, how will that affect the church’s response to missions and local outreach? _____

How will it affect our personal responsibility to love others as we love Christ? _____

3. Latin America is engulfed in poverty and turmoil from failed governments. In some cases—such as Venezuela—evil dictators have brought nations to their knees, and people are crying out for help. What is the solution to all this turmoil? _____

4. In light of the current events in our world, what should the church’s response be concerning global missions? _____

5. List the three main areas Eric mentions where help is needed in Latin America: _____

6. How could your congregation help meet one or more of these needs? _____

7. Mendell Taylor said, “The church must send, or the church will end.” How do you agree/disagree with this statement? _____
