

Generations of Change in the Bahamas

---

1. Joe Smith shares how his perspective of ministry changed after God began working on his heart, humbling him through the task of caring for Mr. Pinder's feet. What changed for Joe? _____
_____
_____
2. Ministry, whether at home or abroad, can become mundane.
  - a) How could this attitude be a problem in your church when supporting missionaries? _____
_____
  - b) How could it affect your church when ministering to the community? _____
_____
  - c) List some ways to change this attitude: _____
_____
3. The Smiths invested the time necessary to learn the Bahamian culture. They deeply integrated into the community which earned the love and acceptance of the people. What are some ways your church can become an even more active part of your community? _____
_____
4. What are some daily circumstances in your life God is wanting to use to break down barriers and build bridges to impact your family or community? _____
_____
5. No doubt you can point back to times where a vibrant love for God showed through your life in ways that tangibly impacted others. Write a brief summary one of those instances. _____
_____
6. Loving others and meeting their needs is not just reserved for a special category of "professional" Christians. All of us must do our part to see generations transformed through building meaningful, caring relationships. How has your perspective of ministry changed or expanded as a result of hearing the Smith's story? _____
_____
_____