

Glimpses of God's Grace in the Islands

1. If a society is to flourish, it must have a God-centered worldview. How does a clear God-centered worldview affect ministry in your church? _____

2. What are some specific ways you can strengthen a God-centered worldview in your own life, in your family, and in your church? _____

3. Education is a foundational building block of any society no matter the geographical location or culture. It provides a wonderful avenue for opening doors to ministry. How did education specifically help Fred and Barbara Wingham train future leaders in the Turks and Caicos? _____

4. What role does education play in your local church? _____

5. List three areas in which your church could benefit from training others. _____

6. Actions have consequences. When Fred and Barbara Wingham moved to the Turks and Caicos Islands, they never dreamed their ministry would have such a lasting impact. As Fred said, "I was doing what was available and what needed to be done at the time." Yet almost fifty years later, the ministry of those early years continues to bear fruit. The current Lighthouse Conference President Earnest Forbes is a product of Lighthouse Christian Academy! How does this story encourage you to continue on in the work God has called you to do? _____

7. The future of any church is found in the people coming up through the ranks. How healthy will your church be in fifty years based on how you are currently preparing the next generations? _____

