MODERN DAY
MISSIONARIES

THE GOSPEL ON AIR

DIRTY HEART, CLEAN HEART

Jeanne knew better. She really did. But did knowing better stop her? Not this time. Nor the last time. Jeanne Schwartz wanted that money, so she just took it—right out of the church offering! After all, mother would not count it until Monday, so Jeanne had plenty of time to steal without getting caught.

Jeanne was conscientious and worried about a lot of things (like picking up trash and keeping her hands very, very clean), but something was wrong in Jeanne's heart. It was not clean. Jeanne had grown up attending church and hearing about Jesus, but she had not truly given her life to Him. She let stealing and other bad behaviors control her. But God had big plans for Jeanne. He wanted her to serve Him, so He placed a Christian schoolteacher in Jeanne's life. This teacher showed Jeanne love and helped guide her toward God and turning her life around.

As a young teen Jeanne made up her mind to follow God. She worked hard to make right the wrongs she had done. She began helping her mother minister to inner-city children in her backyard and to homeless people at a local mission.

There Jeanne learned how to show God's love to all people—even the dirty, drunk, and desperate souls of the streets.

After high school and college Jeanne found all kinds of ministry opportunities. Working for God led her to many places, including the far-off lands of Taiwan and China. Whether serving as a teacher, counselor, preacher, or radio broadcaster, Jeanne has been a shining light for Jesus everywhere she goes. Just think how many lives have been changed because this one little girl let Jesus clean up her dirty heart and make it His own.

MEMORY VERSE

And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world.
Matthew 24:14

SECRETS & SPIES

“Zaoshang hao! Nihao ma*?” Gus asked from his perch beside Miss Jeanne. His greeting of “Good morning! How are you?” was answered with giggles and chatter from the Chinese children as they scooted closer. They were eager to hear the stories Miss Jeanne and her puppet Gus told.

Gus was a great missionary! Children everywhere watched with fascination as Miss Jeanne used Gus to teach about God. But Gus was not Miss Jeanne’s only tool for sharing the gospel message. With her special Taiwanese friend Dorothy Hsu (“shee”), Jeanne made many trips to China. These trips were sometimes dangerous. The Chinese government did not like their people meeting to learn about God. So the Chinese Christians had to meet in secret. During their visits Jeanne and Dorothy would encourage the secret church members and provide helpful teaching.

Trips to China were not always possible, so Jeanne and Dorothy found another way to continue their ministry.

Playing an Important Role

Did you know you can be a missionary using pretend play?

A pretend church service or Bible club is a great way to teach your friends about Jesus. Using puppets would add to the fun!

Plan your own radio broadcast. Include local news and traffic information for fun, but don't forget the most important news you can share—the gospel! Record a video or audio version of your broadcast and share it with family, friends...and us! Email it to engagekids@feaministries.org so we can share it to our Facebook page.
