FROM THE Editor

BY WES PETERSON

Romans 10:13-15 provides a clear picture of salvation in verse thirteen but then draws us into a list of questions that, as followers of Jesus Christ, we must pay attention to.

For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

With an estimate of 31 percent of the world population identifying as Christians, we have a lot of work that still needs done if we are to reach a lost and dying world. Approximately 3.4 billion people in the world have yet to hear the gospel message that Jesus loves them. In our affluent American culture God is still calling young men and women who are willing to abandon everything and be “sold out” to following Jesus—no matter the cost.

I recently picked up my journal and read what I had written on July 22, 2015, three years before we moved to Africa. “I have no idea where all of this is going to take us, but I want to live a life before God, my kids and the world that is radical, different, and when my life is over it will have been spent for eternity.” It was nothing profound, yet etched in ink was a desire to abandon self and do something radical, different, and with eternal value.

How many people today have settled for less than God’s best because they were asking the wrong questions? “If I serve Jesus or move across the globe, what will I miss?” The more appropriate question we should be asking is, “What will I miss out on if I don’t abandon it all for the sake of the gospel? If God has given me this desire, what if I don’t go?” Living a life that is completely and fully surrendered to God and His will is living a rich and full life.

A profound statement I heard many years ago has stuck with me to this day. Many people take their never-realized dreams to their graves because they never had the courage to play the music they were meant to play. Obedience to the call of God in your life requires laser focus and denial of self at the foot of the cross.

Missionary C. T. Studd said it so well,

*Only one life, 'twill soon be past;
only what's done for Christ will last.* •

FROM THE President

BY HAROLD MARTIN
FEA President

Psalm 96 is a powerful song of praise to God! It is also a straightforward call to cross-cultural ministry.

Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day. Declare His glory among the nations, His wonders among all peoples.

Oh, worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness! Tremble before Him, all the earth. Say among the nations, The LORD reigns.

For He is coming to judge the earth and the peoples with His truth.
(Verses 2-3, 9-10, 13 NKJV)

It is no mistake that the psalmist combines the urgent work of the church—evangelizing the lost—with a focus on the glory of God. Where there is no passion for the glory of God, there will be no zeal for reaching the lost! There will be no compelling reason to obey the commands of Matthew 28 to “go and make disciples.”

Ministry activity motivated by anything other than bringing glory to God will be unrewarding, lifeless, and unfruitful. But a correct focus on bringing glory to God by declaring “His wonders among all people” is nothing short of world-changing!

Often when I visit HIM missionaries serving around the world, I refer to them as “World Changers.” I do this because I believe it is an accurate description of what they do—not because of any strength they possess in and of themselves, but due to the incredible message they have to share. The message of the risen Christ is indeed world changing and glorifying to God.

The last verse of Psalm 96 highlights the urgency of our task: “For He is coming to judge the earth. He shall judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with His truth.” So we continue to serve, we continue to send, we continue to support those who are on the front lines of the harvest, daily bringing glory to God by their many acts of service! •

PROCLAIMING GOD'S GLORY IN TAIWAN

BY BYRON MANNERS, Taiwan Field Director

Abby helping to lead worship

On an island where thousands of idols are worshipped, the Christian minority faces a profound challenge: how can we effectively demonstrate the glory of the One True God? One foundational approach is by living Christ-like lives. However, in a society marked by broad tolerance for diverse cultures and lifestyles, such witness can sometimes appear to make little visible impact.

In my own experience, a powerful way God has chosen to manifest His glory is through miraculous healings.

In 2010 Abby was involved in a devastating motor scooter accident. Her brain swelled to such an extent that surgeons were compelled to remove a portion of her skull to save her life. At that time, she was not ready to meet God, and our hearts were heavy. When I visited her in the intensive care unit, I laid my hand on her and prayed. By God's grace she survived and went on to make a complete recovery. In time she gave her life to Christ and now occasionally leads worship in our church, using her beautiful singing voice to glorify the Lord.

On Easter evening in 2018 we received shocking news that another woman, Cody, suffered a severe stroke. Her condition also necessitated the removal of a portion of her skull due to brain swelling. Once again I was led to pray with her in the ICU, and once again God intervened. While her recovery was not as complete as Abby's, she too came to faith and now follows Christ.

April 2 of this year I was asked to pray for the son-in-law of a church member. He had been unconscious for twenty-five days. Two days later, his mother-in-law arrived at church and shared that he had awakened the day before. He and his family do not yet believe, but in that moment the Lord clearly demonstrated His power in response to prayer. While we do not yet know the conclusion of his story, we remain hopeful.

Although God does not always act in such dramatic ways, these testimonies serve as reminders that He is continually at work—patiently revealing Himself, one person at a time, across this spiritually dark island. Through healing, transformation, and faithful witness, God continues to reveal Himself. •

PROCLAIMING GOD'S GLORY OVER THE AIRWAVES

BY GLENN GAULT, Director of HIM Africa

Ntate Kali preaching at the radio station

For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.
(Hab. 2:14)

HIM missionaries and national workers are faithfully laboring to fulfill this prophetic vision by spreading the knowledge of God's glory through planting churches, training leaders, providing health care, ministering to children, and other outreaches. Among these, perhaps no ministry has a greater potential to "fill the earth" than radio broadcasting, since it is still the most accessible and far-reaching form of media in developing countries.

When Pastor Kali began preaching on the radio around 2014, the majority of other evangelical pastors in Lesotho were more concerned with financial gain and personal reputation than with the gospel. His message of repentance and holy living stood in stark contrast to the other radio programs that promised healing, miracles, and blessings in exchange for financial contributions. His bold preaching exposed the errors of such teachings, and some pastors initially resented him for it.

Over the past decade God has used these weekly broadcasts to change the spiritual climate of the country. Pastors who previously opposed Pastor Kali now respect him. He has met in person with a number of Christian leaders to help them develop a deeper relationship with God. Though most will never sit in an HIM church, tens of thousands of people tune in to these messages each week. We get regular feedback from those who have surrendered their lives to Christ and from others who are seeking holiness.

An example of a life changed is a prisoner who got saved through these broadcasts. Since he will still be in custody for a number of years and has no immediate living family, he has requested HIM use his house to plant a new church in a very strategic town in Lesotho. Once planted, this church will become a meeting place for several other families who have gotten saved through the radio ministry.

Lesotho is being filled with the knowledge of the Lord. •

The Smiths

CONGRATULATIONS, MATT AND BROOKE

Matt and Brooke (Fall) Smith were united in marriage on May 16, 2025, charting a new life together.

Matt received a call to missions as a teenager. Over the last eight years he has been looking forward to the day God would open the door for him to serve in Africa. His Bible college preparations and many short-term mission trips to Africa and Europe will be a big help to him and Brooke as they prepare to be full-time missionaries. They plan to move to Lesotho, Africa, in 2026 and begin serving with the HIM Africa missionary team.

The Lord willing, they expect to start their deputation travels this fall, sharing about the ministries they will be involved with in Africa. If you or your church is interested in hosting them for a service, contact them at matthewsmith@feaministries.org.

Please keep Matt and Brooke in your prayers during these exciting days ahead as they prepare for the field of service to which God has called them. •

HIM CARIBBEAN

PROCLAIMING GOD'S GLORY IN THE CARIBBEAN

BY JIM HOWARD, Director of HIM Caribbean

It is a wonderful privilege to be a part of the great host proclaiming God's glory to the ends of the earth. God is building His church in spite of large obstacles and those who oppose. The violence, unrest, and unsafe conditions in Haiti have prevented us for some time from traveling to meet personally with our faithful pastors. But God opened the way for Frank Vaughn, Daryl Hobbs, and I to visit our pastors and orphans. We were able to host a pastors' conference for their encouragement.

Daryl Hobbs took time to meet individually with each boy, focusing on listening to them. We heard reports of how they continue to boldly proclaim God's glory, even though much of Haiti is under the ravaging attacks of violent and undisciplined gangs. Thousands of displaced refugees have fled from the danger in their towns and villages. Many of these refugees have come to the areas where our national pastors have churches. The pastors are doing what they can to help provide shelter and meet at least some of their needs. They have the privilege of presenting them with the glorious hope of the gospel. Churches are overflowing, and people are finding God. The pastors are exhibiting victorious spirits amid these extreme demands and hardships. Please pray urgently for their safety, health, and strength, and for the funds needed to proclaim God's glory to the precious people of Haiti.

We are focused on proclaiming God's glory in the Turks and Caicos Islands as well. President

Martin and I, along with our wives, traveled there to participate and share at the annual conference of the Lighthouse churches. I endeavored to challenge the conference from the theme: "Walking by Faith, Not by Sight—Trusting God's Plan for our Lives." Eddie Smith, a local pastor, continued the theme on Saturday night. President Martin brought the Sunday morning address, and Conference President Junior Forbes brought the closing challenge.

The annual business meeting was conducted, and three ministers were considered for ordination. We discussed plans for the new mission house in Bottle Creek and resolved questions about how the project should proceed. God helped, and we sensed a spirit of unity and cooperation. We are looking forward to conducting an area-wide rally in Grand Bahama with Rev. Harrison Pinder. We are so grateful to stand alongside those who are proclaiming God's glory in the beautiful islands of the Caribbean. •

HIM EUROPE

PROCLAIMING GOD'S GLORY THROUGH WORSHIP

BY EDWARD DURHAM, Director of HIM Europe

Recently while reading Psalm 96, I was impressed by the invitation to declare God's glory to all the nations through worship. We often think of worship as a personal expression of our adoration for God. However, worship is also a way to proclaim God's marvelous deeds so they are evident to others, thus inviting them to come into a personal relationship with Him. This reminds me that evangelism and worship are inseparable.

This is why we focus on both worship and evangelism as we seek to proclaim God's glory to the ends of the earth. Europe is composed of a wide variety of cultures and languages. Sometimes this can be a bit of a barrier to worship, but at other times it presents a beautiful experience where everyone is drawn closer to God.

Last month the Motovilov family participated in a joint service with all Prague Methodist churches, which included Czech, Russian, Ukrainian, English, and Bulgarian languages. During the service, they read Psalm 136 in Czech, with everyone responding in their own language with "His mercy endures forever." They also recited the Apostle's Creed and the Lord's Prayer together, each in their own language. There was singing in all languages as well. It was a wonderful service with God's presence!

Heather and I enjoyed a conference in Budapest where church congregations from Hungary and Romania came together for worship and celebration. Several nationalities were present, and I could not help but realize that the worship was fueling a renewed vision and purpose to proclaim God's glory to the ends of the earth.

It is my prayer that we will be faithful to reflect God's glory in our daily lives and our worship—making it visible to others, so they also will come to experience His presence and "give glory to your Father who is in heaven" (Matt. 5:16 ESV). •

HIM LATIN AMERICA CONVERSIONS AND DISCIPLESHIP IN LATIN AMERICA

BY ERIC KUHNS, Director of HIM Latin America

I closed the church door behind me and started walking toward home. I was feeling a little discouraged as questions ran through my mind. Were we making any impact? How could we reach more souls? It had been a while since we had seen new converts. All of a sudden a truck pulled up. The driver leaned out the window and said, “Pastor Eric, I am so glad to see you. I have been wanting to talk to you for days.” It was Ismael, a local mechanic I had become acquainted with but did not know very well. Ismael had struggled with alcohol for years; he was losing his family and his health.

Startled, I said “Hey, how are you doing? What’s going on?”

“Oh” he said, “my life is a mess. I want to change. I need God. Can you help me?”

That was music to my ears. Here I was thinking nothing was happening, when all along God had been working behind the scenes. That following Sunday, he was sitting on the front row and after the message came forward to give his life to Christ. Since that time he has been growing in Christ. It has not been easy, but he is approaching one month of sobriety. He is so thankful for the change Christ has made in his life.

I recently had a Zoom meeting with our regional pastors, and each one gave an update on their ministry. I was so encouraged to hear almost every one of them report new converts, baptisms, and new families in their churches. I left the meeting encouraged. God’s glory continues to be proclaimed.

Pastor Danilo told how he felt led to travel to a town about an hour and a half from where he lives. He did not know why but felt prompted to make the trip. After arriving in that town and walking down several alleys, he met a lady selling food on the street. They began a conversation that turned into a friendship and an open door for ministry among her family.

Pastor Roberto told of a family of four that got saved, discipled, baptized, and the parents even got married! They have become strong leaders in his congregation.

God is still at work! It is exciting to hear how people are learning and growing in their faith. One new lady who just started attending our church said, “I never realized what a blessing I was missing by not reading my Bible. I used to go to church, and I would dust my Bible off to carry it with me, but I never read it. Since I started attending here, and the pastor challenged us to have our devotions every day, it has been such a joy to read the Bible.”

Before writing this article today, I received a visit from a backslidden man who had attended our church for years. As we sat talking on the couch, he said, “Pastor, I came today to give my life to Christ and get right with God.” A new name was written down in glory. I thank the Lord for what He is doing in our churches throughout Latin America.

A family in the Las Uvas church where the Hopkins are pastoring has seen some radical changes in their hearts and home. Eduardo and his wife, Olga, were baptized by Jeremy right before the Hopkins left for deputation. When Jeremy and Esther returned, they were surprised to see the change, not only in the parents but the smiles and happiness in their children. People are hungry. God is answering prayer. And supporters like you are standing behind us. Thank you! These are the fruits growing on your vines of prayer! •

JUCAMENE

BY: DARYL HOBBS, Haiti Field Administrator

Early one morning a policeman knocked on the door, coming to tell me that during the night a young woman had delivered a baby in our local jail, a woman who had been put in jail because she was caught stealing a cup of rice for her two children. She was all alone, as there had been no guards on night duty. I immediately sent word for my clinic worker to check on the mother and to bring the baby to me.

He was a beautiful baby boy. I washed him, dressed him, and wrapped him in a warm blanket, then headed to the jail to give him to his mother. I heard comments and jokes along the way about the "little prisoner," but my heart was aching for the young mother who must have been frightened as she delivered him all alone.

As I walked into the chilly little cell which a guard unlocked for me, I found the mother, Jucamene, lying on a straw mat on the cold cement floor. Handing the precious newborn boy to her, I then put my arm around her shoulders and told her, "God's not laughing at you! He really loves you!"

Tears streamed down her face as she replied, "I know. He was here with me last night when I was in labor! It was dark, and no one else was here to help me, but I felt His presence here!" I was moved to think God had not left her alone, even though she didn't yet know Him.

Later that day I was able to spend more time sharing the wonderful story of salvation with her. What a joy to be able to read God's Word with her and tell her more about Jesus! The next morning Jucamene told me that she had been thinking about what I had shared with her and that she was ready to follow Jesus with all her heart. We prayed together, and a new child was born into the family of God that day! •

HIM US SPANISH MINISTRIES

GOD'S GLOBAL GLORY

BY SIDNEY GRANT, Director of HIM US Spanish Ministries

The Bible declares that God's glory will saturate the earth, showcasing His goodness through Jesus Christ's life, death, and resurrection. The following passages describe the prophetic and relational display of God's glory—consummated in the redemptive revelation of the Lord Jesus.

For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD as the waters cover the sea. (Hab. 2:14 ESV)

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. (John 1:14 ESV)

HIM US Spanish Ministries is endeavoring to share the redemptive and relational glory of God to all people—particularly to the displaced Hispanic migrants in the United States. The historical mission—reaching the Hispanic community in South Florida through innovative approaches like the Mobile Chapel, teaching English, evangelizing displaced migrants, discipling new converts, and planting churches—has expanded nationally and internationally. The historical objectives include:

- Mobile Chapel: A unique approach to bring church services and community support directly to the people, making it accessible for those who may not be able to attend a traditional church setting
- Teaching English: Providing English-language classes to help integrate displaced migrants into the community and to improve their opportunities for employment and education
- Evangelism: Actively sharing the gospel with the Hispanic community, aiming to reach those who have not yet heard about God's goodness
- Discipleship: Mentoring and guiding new converts in their faith journey, helping them grow spiritually and become active members of the church
- Church Planting: Establishing new churches in various locations to expand the reach of the ministry and provide local communities with a place to worship and grow in their faith

The vision is a heritage of holiness among Hispanics in the United States. It is actively being realized by hundreds of believers worshiping weekly who focus on engaging and equipping generational believers for reproducible ministry.

Spanish Ministries is present in:

- Florida: West Palm Beach, Indiantown, Lake Worth, Hobe Sound, Boynton Beach, Sun City, Lakeland, Fort Myers, Immokalee, and Arcadia
- North Carolina: Graham and Mount Olive
- Indiana: Shelbyville, Indianapolis, Anderson, and Columbus
- Other cities and states: Lebanon, Pennsylvania; Springfield, Massachusetts; Dalton, Georgia; Cincinnati, Ohio; Henderson, Maryland; Hazel Green, Alabama
- More recently: Easley, South Carolina, where we are preparing to start a new church

Spanish Ministries has expanded internationally, reaching countries such as Honduras, Guatemala, Mexico, Nicaragua, and most recently Colombia. The mission continues its trajectory in reaching Hispanics, cross-culturally and generationally, with the gospel of Christ and the message of biblical holiness.

The global glory of God is most fully realized where the gospel is faithfully proclaimed and holiness is both experienced and exemplified in daily living. The mission continues to grow, now actively expanding across ten countries, twenty-four cities, and among hundreds of believers who worship God in the beauty of holiness. As this expansion progresses, core priorities remain unchanged: evangelizing the lost, discipling new believers, engaging every generation—both young and old—in missions at home and abroad, and equipping the saints for the work of ministry.

From the cradle to the grave, the pursuit of God's global glory advances to the ends of the earth through the strategic efforts of envisioning, equipping, expanding, and establishing. •

GOSPEL PUBLISHING MISSION

PROCLAIMING GOD'S GLORY THROUGH LITERATURE

BY JOSEPH TAYLOR, Director of Gospel Publishing Mission

God's glory is being proclaimed around the world through Gospel Publishing Mission. In North Carolina at the Hope Dealer Training Conference for bikers, GPM had an exhibit. We provided biker evangelism books and presented a "spotlight" on using evangelism books as a tool to witness. We were told amazing accounts of deliverance from many addictions.

In Florida Allen and Kay Barr are keeping busy. The Lord helped them as they handed out books recently at the Leesburg Biker Rally. Other bike rallies where GPM will be distributing literature include Laconia Bike Week and Sturgis Bike Rally. At the time of this article the books for Laconia Bike Week have made it across the ocean and are in New York, while the Sturgis Bike Rally books are being printed. Pray these pieces of literature, which include stories and the gospel message, will be a light, pointing the receivers to Jesus and His saving power.

We requested that our Broken Chains biker friends visit a friend bound by addictions in a distant state. We thank the Lord that the gospel message is being received, and we are praying for and expecting clear and full salvation. Only God can do wonderful things like this! •

World Cup 2026 is fast approaching, and we are praying and preparing for this huge event. There are sixteen game cities: two in Canada, three in Mexico, and eleven in the USA. In order to successfully distribute the gospel to all of them, churches and literature distribution teams are necessary. Several spaces are already filled, but we are needing more people who would like to join us in this endeavor. Do help us pray for additional churches to commit to the challenge! God is working, and we are praying for souls to be saved. •

HAVE YOU NOTICED?

Over the past year FEA Ministries has conducted a strategic review to update our brand guide. This update included a new logo, color palette, and typography designed to propel us into the future.

Under the leadership of Benjamin McDowell and the public relations department, we successfully completed this project at the end of 2024. We began rolling out what we are calling a “soft launch” at the beginning of this year.

Our updated logo combines our heritage with a modern design that enhances usability across multiple platforms. Over the next six months we will continue this rollout, with the goal of finalizing everything by Sea Breeze Camp 2026.

Original ministry of FEA

In the early 1940s H. Robb French and his wife, Geraldine, dreamed of starting a winter camp meeting in the state of Florida, a place where revival could be pursued and principles of holy living promoted. In 1947 thirty acres were purchased in Hobe Sound on Florida's east coast. Buildings were moved to the property from a nearby army base that was closing, and in February 1948 the first camp meeting was held. The other ministries of FEA have grown out of Sea Breeze Camp.

Affordable ministry housing

Sea Breeze Community was developed as the camp meeting grew. The addition of sister ministries, Hobe Sound Bible Church and Hobe Sound Bible College, increased the need for housing and further ministry facilities. The community gives priority to providing affordable housing for retired ministers such as pastors and missionaries. Housing is also used by the current staff of FEA, Hobe Sound Bible College, and Hobe Sound Bible Church. The property now encompasses over fifty acres and provides an attractive and affordable campus for the operation of FEA and our sister ministries.

Sending since the 1960s

Hope International Missions is the missionary-sending division of FEA Ministries. Since the early 1960s missionaries have been sent out from FEA to serve around the world. Currently thirty-five families are active in twenty-plus countries. The work of HIM missionaries includes traditional missionary work such as evangelism and church planting but also orphan ministries, medical missions, literature production and distribution, and education.

PROBLEMS TO BE SOLVED

Watch this short video to learn more about this exciting project.

It has been asserted, a well-stated problem is a problem half solved.

Over the past few years FEA Ministries' leadership has been working diligently to identify campus development "problems." Early on a need was recognized for a dedicated place to house our missionaries when they are on campus. The Palm Missionary Guesthouse was completed in 2021. The aging infrastructure on our campus was also realized as a problem. Since 2022 we have completed over $1 million in upgrades to our roofs, buildings, and sewer network. Another significant problem was over $500,000 of lingering debt, due in part to the EPA-mandated connection to a local utility. As of June 2024 FEA Ministries is debt free. We thank God for His provision in helping us to identify and solve these problems. But we are not done yet.

As we have continued to evaluate our campus, clearly additional issues remained to be solved. We are introducing a three-phase plan to correct several of them.

THE COMMONS REDEVELOPMENT PROJECT

INADEQUATE PARKING

The "Commons" area of campus has a total of 32 parking spots. Though adequate in the late 1940s when the campus was developed, it is insufficient today. Increasing the severity of this situation is the growth of our partner ministry, Hobe Sound Christian Academy. The Commons area doubles as the academy high school car line and is extremely congested both mornings and afternoons as students are dropped off and picked up from school. A redesign of the traffic flow and parking capacity is well past due!

OFFICE SPACE & STORAGE LIMITATIONS

As FEA Ministries has grown over the past several years, our office and storage space has been exhausted. Every office is occupied, leaving no room for future growth. In fact several of our staff have already had to set up offices at home or in other spaces around campus. In addition many of our outreach ministries, particularly in the area of literature production and distribution, require storage. Our severely restricted storage capacity limits our ability to have materials on hand.

CAMPUS AESTHETICS

Most of the buildings in our current Commons area were built in the 1950s. Our cafeteria and student center have both been remodeled in recent years and are attractive. The remaining buildings are dated and also in disrepair. This project will address our campus appearance issues, giving a cohesive aesthetic to the buildings in the Commons area.

PHASE 3 COMPLETED BY THE END OF 2028!

Phase 3 will consist of the construction of the new FEA Headquarters building.

Once completed, this building will house the combined offices of Sea Breeze Community, Sea Breeze Camp, and Hope International Missions. It will also provide an attractive "front door" to our campus.

GOAL: $2.2 Million

FROM FEA'S PRESIDENT

“Thank You” are two short words that are so easy to say but incredibly difficult to adequately express. I continue to be amazed by the support many of you provide to keep the kingdom work of FEA Ministries moving forward. It is with great humility that we express our gratitude for your giving to our missionaries and projects. Your support is something we deeply appreciate and do not take for granted.

But there is more work to accomplish together. Recently I have been challenged by the words of a well-known hymn: “Ponder anew what the Almighty can do!”

I have asked myself, am I limiting God by relying on my own strength? Am I willing to pursue even bigger things for God? The vision we have laid out is substantial, and I humbly ask that you consider coming alongside us to help solve the “problems” presented in this mailing.

Below are ways you can donate toward this project. We are confident God still has a mighty work for FEA Ministries to accomplish. We are working to remove as many barriers as possible to seize the opportunities the future will present.

Thank you for your faithful partnership with us in the past, and we are looking forward to great days in the future!

SEA BREEZE COMMUNITY

GREETINGS FROM THE NEIGHBORHOOD

BY STEVE HOARD, Sea Breeze Community Business Manager

One of the basic needs we all share is a place to rest, sleep, and eat as families and friends. This is a large part of what SBC does. We have a very dedicated and talented maintenance team that keeps up with the utilities, air conditioners, buildings, and grounds God has provided. This group is sacrificial with their time and money! In addition to maintaining, this group is also actively involved in improving the quality of housing for each resident. This year we are upgrading several roofs to metal. These will last for forty-plus years. In all we do, we seek to wisely reinvest the money we have to make quality improvements that will last for many years. I am thankful for the huge advancements that have been made over the last ten to fifteen years, and we are endeavoring to continue this progress.

But if the structural component were all that was important, we would be missing much opportunity! Every aspect of our lives is ministry. One of the beautiful things about SBC is that we have the opportunity to live and worship together, build meaningful relationships, and encourage one another in this life—continually pointing each other to Jesus. How does this look? It can be seen in the attitude of Sean, our maintenance manager. I have been here over five months, and I have not heard or seen a “grouchy” demeanor, even if he is called out to a clogged drain over the weekend. I could give many other examples and may in future articles. As the saying goes, this is where the rubber hits the road.

This year FEA has emphasized the phrase, “To the ends of the earth”! I submit that this ministry starts in our own backyard. If this is fostered in Christlikeness, then we can be empowered to change the world far and near!

We invite you to visit SBC campus. With God’s help we are endeavoring to build and strengthen this community for the glory of God! •

LOUIE THE MONKEY

Congratulations to Thaiden Mowery, age 6, who found Louie the Monkey on page 18 in our last World Update. We are thrilled that Louie's friends are engaging with the magazine.

Louie is hiding again. If you are a friend of Louie's and are age twelve or under, see if you can find him and let us know by having your parents call 772-546-1113 or email us at engagekids@feaministries.org. We will publish your name in the next issue of the World Update. Please make sure to include the page number and location when you contact us. Happy hunting!

LA SANTIFICACIÓN

De la Enseñanza Bíblica a la Experiencia Personal

by Dr. Paul Kaufman
Autor y Profesor

Por más de cuarenta años el Dr. Paul Kaufman ha servido en aulas de colegios universitarios bíblicos como profesor de hebreo, historia de la iglesia, Biblia, y teología. Ha servido el Ashland Theological Seminary como historiador de iglesia por más de treinta años. Durante casi cuatro décadas ha dado clases en Malone University, Kent State University, God's Bible School & College, Hobe Sound Bible College (cátedra de Biblia y teología), y Allegheny Wesleyan College (profesor emérito y ex decano académico). También ha servido como evaluador de colegios universitarios con la Asociación para la Educación Superior Bíblica durante casi veinte años.

Este libro describe lecciones prácticas que comunican claramente el cambio que cada creyente bíblico puede entender, experimentar, y enseñar. El contenido servirá como recurso de investigación, instrucción, e inspiración a pastores, maestros bíblicos, y el cristiano creyente. Recomendando este libro como un compendio de santidad bíblica y práctica para tener en la biblioteca del estudiante serio de la doctrina de santidad.

PLANNED GIVING

FEA Ministries has been “serving the church and reaching the world” for nearly eight decades. Through its three divisions of Sea Breeze Camp, Sea Breeze Community, and Hope International Missions, we continue to fulfill our mission of making disciples.

Planned giving is a strategic way for individuals to support their causes through long-term financial contributions, often arranged as part of their estate planning or financial strategy. These types of gifts can provide significant future support while offering tax benefits and financial flexibility.

We invite you to prayerfully consider FEA Ministries and become part of a legacy that reflects your values and commitment to reaching the lost through the message of the gospel. •

INTERCEDING AS NEW DOORS OF Opportunity Open

Hope International Missions is thrilled to send pioneering missionaries to a new country of ministry. As the Benjamin McDowell family leaves to begin serving in Armenia, let's pray that the Lord of the Harvest will:

1. Aid in transition to a new culture. May God give spiritual and emotional health and strength.
2. Open doors of opportunity. May God lead them to the right people with whom to connect and grant wisdom to discern His leadership.
3. Give understanding as they learn a new culture and language.
4. Give long-term vision for the ministry in Armenia and surrounding countries.
5. Call other new workers into His great harvest field.
