Nathanael Bundy

Hello, friends, and God's peace be upon you,

This summer has been busy and filled with much preparation and activity. Over the past few months I have had the opportunity to make new acquaintances—many of whom are new Christians and young in their understanding of faith. These opportunities have helped me gain a better understanding of the effect Christianity has already had on Taiwan and is continuing to have today.

Most of the early summer months were spent in preparation for the annual summer English camps. These are similar to a VBS in format. Alongside other missionaries, I have diligently been working with local churches to hold these special events for the children. This year's camp theme was "Space," and we used it to show the greatness of God's creation. Throughout the month of July we taught in three different churches and had close to forty children in total attendance. One of the most encouraging things has been staying in contact with several new families—connections that began through their children attending camps and that have continued to grow.

I have also had chance meetings with new friends, as well as old ones. Ministry and evangelism is not something that always follows a set plan. Many times God will unexpectedly bring people into our lives. I am learning to look for and embrace these opportunities to share Christ.

I am grateful for your continued prayers and hope to share more with you in the future. One of our church helpers compiled a series of videos of our last camp, and it is available on YouTube. If you would like to see more than a few pictures, you can watch them here:

I want to express my deepest gratitude for your prayers and support. Your giving reminds me that I do not do this ministry alone. May your generous giving and the work here continue to bring glory to God's kingdom. Grace and peace be yours this day.
